

Classical Night Fever Playbill Bio

Classical Night Fever, the popular 70's disco Symphony Pops tribute show has been touring nationally and receiving rave reviews since its inception in 2013. It's a feel-good musical extravaganza you won't soon forget! Just take a look at what's being said by audience members and industry professionals alike:

"What a wonderful show! One show that I will never forget... The talent you guys possess is magical! ...Wonderful, simply wonderful! Thanks for the fantastic night out!"

- Audience Member

"Classical Night Fever was a "Funktabulous" success. The audience exploded at each show."

- LONNIE KLEIN, Music Director/Conductor, Las Cruces Symphony Orchestra.

"Classical Night Fever was not only a groovy good time for audience and orchestra alike, but the artists were a joy to work with. There is no greater orchestral dance party!"

- STEVE COLLINS, Director of Artistic Operations & Administration, Hartford Symphony Orchestra.

This world-class show features four powerhouses from the Planet Funktar: Superfly on guitar and vocals, Vinnie Boom-Boom Funktonio on bass guitar and vocals, Spanishfly on guitar and vocals and Cyclone Link Skywalker Jr. on drums and vocals. Each are highly skilled musicians and performers, but more than that, they're on a mission – A mission to "funkitize" the masses by marrying the lavish sounds of the orchestra with brilliantly arranged disco hits by the likes of Donna Summer, The Bee Gees, Barry White, The Village People and more. They take the stage with stylin' afros, head-turning retro costume changes and some of the coolest platform shoes this side of the Milky Way Galaxy!

Much of the 70's disco music featured full orchestration and Classical Night Fever has carefully selected popular disco-era hits that highlight the majesty of the symphony orchestra. The show even incorporates some orchestra-only pieces, showcasing your orchestra with 70's TV and movie theme medleys.

You'll leave this show with a big smile on your face and a new appreciation for this great era of popular music, where dance music and the symphony collide to create something special. So get up off your seat and bask in the lush disco sounds of your orchestra and Classical Night Fever!
